

South Mountain Community Church is the largest evangelical church in the state of Utah. Founded in 1998, SMCC started in Draper, Utah – a section of America “where churches go to die.” From the beginning, SMCC has been fueled by a passion for reaching disenfranchised LDS people and showing them the hope found in the Gospel (in contrast to religion). Now, 24 years later, the vision of SMCC remains the same, “to reach as many people as possible and help them take their next step in full devotion and full delight in Jesus Christ.” SMCC now has 5 locations across Utah, with a congregation size of 3,000 people each Sunday.

SMCC is looking for an individual who is passionate about reaching lost people and helping them find grace and truth in the Gospel. This candidate must have a desire to be clear, helpful, and hopeful in their ministry. The ideal candidate will be passionate about “living in a mission field,” and helping people who have been broken and abused through religion.

A star candidate for this position will have a passion for helping students understand Jesus in fun and engaging ways. This candidate will have expert knowledge on how to create environments with helpful and helpful teaching. An ideal candidate will love leading and growing volunteer teams and investing in them.

South Mountain Community Church has 5 locations spread across Utah. One of our largest locations is located in the fastest growing metro areas in America (St George, Utah). This Southern Utah campus has consistently grown in size year after year since the acquisition of The Springs Church in 2008. Pastor Tom Mertz has been faithfully serving as the Campus Pastor at this location for 14 years.
